

5/22/2023

Jason Scott, a resident of Talbot County, Maryland is the owner of Diamondback Farms, LLC. He and his family grow corn, soybeans, wheat, and malting barley on about 1800 acres.

Jason and his family have also been Independent Sales Representatives for Pioneer Hi-Bred for about 35 years. Jason is a graduate of the University of Maryland with a B.S. in Agriculture and Resource Economics. He also earned a Master of Business Administration from The Perdue School of Business at Salisbury University.

He is a founding member of the Dorchester County Young Farmers, past president of the Maryland Grain Producers Association, and in 2011, he won the Maryland Young Farmers Achievement Award. He was a member of LEAD Maryland Class V. Jason is a past chairman of US Wheat Associates, a board he has served on since 2008. During his years with U.S. Wheat, he has travelled to 18 different countries promoting American grown wheat.

Jason's hobbies include hunting, fishing, golf, cooking, and travel. Jason currently resides in Trappe, MD with his wife Dr. Casey Scott and their two children.