

Mar-Del Watermelon Queen Avery Kerrick

Maryland Delaware Watermelon Association

Avery Kerrick is from Greenwood, Delaware, and is currently a student at the University of Kentucky, where she is majoring in Agricultural Education and Advocacy. She is an American FFA Degree recipient and has held numerous leadership roles, including Delaware FFA Agricultural Education Proficiency Area Winner and Delaware State Fair Junior Board President.

In her free time, Avery enjoys music and the performing arts, public speaking, reading, showing livestock, playing sports, and traveling. Looking toward the future, she plans to become an agriscience educator and FFA advisor at the high school level, where she hopes to inspire students of all backgrounds to discover opportunities within the agricultural industry through hands-on learning and leadership development.
